STATE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

ELECTION MONDAY AUG. 3RD, 1861.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JOHN YOUNG BROWN,
of Henderson.

FOR LT. GOVERNOR,
M. C. ALFORD, of Lexington.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
JACK HENDRICKS, of Flemingsburg.

FOR AUDITOR,
L. C. NORMAN,
of Boone.

FOR TREASURER,
H. S. HALE, of Mason.

FOR REGISTER OF LAND OFFICE,
G. B. SWANGO, of Woolee.

FOR SUPT. OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
ED. PORTER THOMPSON, of Owen.

FOR CLERK OF COURT OF APPEALS,
A. ADDAMS, of Harrison.

PROCTOR KNOTT is opposed to the new Constitution.

The Republican State Convention is in session at Lexington to-day. The nominee will have no fiery bed of ease when he meets John Young Brown.

How much is your old rooster worth under the new Constitution, your chickens, ducks, turkeys, geese, guineas, mocking birds, dogs, and possibly cats, are taxed.

The State Convention didn't endorse the new Constitution, and it's only chance. Before another State Convention, the n.c. will have climbed the golden stair.

Col. H. M. McCARTY will probably become a candidate for the Senate from Jessamine county. That should settle the question as the county has no better man for the place.

An old clergyman once said that streets of Jerusalem were kept clean by every man sweeping before his own door. Some such plan as this might be adopted on our streets in Richmond. Each occupant of a building should pledge himself to have the sidewalk in front of his residence or place of business swept early every morning, and not to throw waste paper in the gutter nor orange or banana peels on the sidewalk. It would greatly benefit some of the street少年s.

BEWILDERING AT ELECTIONS.

The new Constitution provides that only one election be held in a year, and that all officers, from President of the United States down to town trustee, except Congressman, be elected on that same day. There are at least thirty officers, and hereafter you can safely count on three political parties, which will each have a candidate. Three times thirty are ninety. Think of it, ninety candidates at one election! Do you think there is no danger of confusion?

THE SUB TREASURY OPPOSED.

America, a Chicago publication, says that "Governor J. M. Stone of Mississippi, who is himself a farmer, has written a letter at the solicitation of members of the Farmers' Alliance in his state on the sub-treasury plan which has taken so strong a hold on the minds of the back-district reformers. He points out that if a farmer shall deposit his cotton or other crop in a government warehouse and receive 80 per cent of its value, the chances are that he will never be able to redeem it and that consequently this accommodation from the Government will cost him very dear. As the plan has absolutely nothing to commend it to the farmers, the popularity which it has gained with them must ever be classed among the mysteries. But Governor Stone is looked upon as something of a curiosity because he has the courage to speak his mind plainly in regard to the farmers' pet monstrosity."

FOR CLEVELAND.

The Louisville Times comments as hereunder set forth on the failure of Judge Tarvin's resolution which was not introduced until the Convention was on the eve of adjourning after a four days session:

County, district and other local committees shall be chosen at such times and in such manner as the State Central Committee shall determine.

All rules adopted by the last State Convention not in conflict with these rules are adopted.

The State Executive Committee shall be constituted as follows:

First District—Henry Burnett, of McCracken.

Second District—Urey Woodson, of Deries.

Third District—D. C. Walker, Simpson.

Fourth District—James S. Wortham, Grayson.

Fifth District—Charles R. Long, Louisville.

Sixth District—Rod Perry, Gallatin.

Seventh District—S. G. Sharp, Fayette.

Eighth District—L. W. McKee, Anderson.

Ninth District—Charles B. Poynett.

Tenth District—R. H. Vansart, Elliott.

Eleventh District—G. A. Denham, Whitley.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Democratic party of the State are tendered to John B. Castleman for the faithful and efficient discharge of the duties of Chairman of the State Central Committee.

The State Central Committee shall be constituted as follows:

John B. Castleman, Chairman; James M. Fetter, Attilia Cox, Sterling B. Toney, Wm. L. Lyons, Frederick Herter, Boyd Winchester, Louisville; James W. Bryan, Covington; James D. Hines, Bowling Green; John H. Welch, Nicholasville; H. P. Thompson, Winchester; James A. Garnett, Columbus; H. D. Allen, Morganfield.

Resolved, That the thanks of this convention are due to the Hon. I. H. Goodnight, Temporary Chairman, and to another year. Once again, that before the next election the Congressmen should die or resign, then another Congressman would have to be elected, and the County Judge who has already held the office two years by appointment must hold over yet another year. You see how a man with a large majority one way, could have forced upon it for three years a man of different policy by a Governor of opposite politics to that of the county, and all on account of a lame constitution. The same course applies to all the county officers, as it does to equity judges in the proceedings of this convention. "No

THE TICKET.

The nominations for State officers, made by the convention at Louisville, last week, are good ones, without exception. John Young Brown, for Governor, was a most excellent selection. Personally we preferred Mr. Clay, owing to his several and close relations to Madison county, but considering the State at large, Mr. Brown is as able and available a man as could have been found. His ability, firmness, eloquence and dignity made him thousands of warm friends wherever he went. Like the great 'leveler,' he has his well digested opinions, and fearlessly expresses them, wherever and whenever occasion demands. His majority will be 50,000.

STATE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The convention convened on Wednesday and adjourned on Saturday. The officers, whose names appear at the head of our column, were nominated, Mr. Brown on the 13th ballot, Mr. Clay being at that time his only opponent. Clay was the first to succumb, Hardin next. On the 12th ballot, the vote stood, Brown, 356; Clay, 311; Hardin, 246. Gen. Hardin then withdrew, and during the 13th ballot, Mr. Clay withdrew and Mr. Brown was nominated by a unanimous vote. The 13th ballot was reached on Friday.

Mr. Allard, Jr. Lieutenant-Governor, had no opposition, and was nominated by acclamation.

For Auditor, James Blackburn, of Woodford, Chas. S. Green, of Louisville, R. C. Warren, of Lincoln, and L. C. Norman, of Boone, were nominated. The last named received more votes than all his opponents.

For Treasurer, H. S. Hale, of Mason.

For Register of Land Office, G. B. Swango, of Woolee.

For Supt. of Public Instruction, Ed. Porter Thompson, of Owen.

For Clerk of Court of Appeals, A. Addams, of Harrison.

CONVENTION ECHOES.

A number of the leading papers of the State have given some strong reasons why the new work should not be undertaken by the people.—Kentucky State Journal.

Hon. L. W. Lessing was in town Monday, and distributed a large number of copies of the proposed new Constitution. It looked very much like the pamphlet was falling into the hands of its enemies, but those receiving it will surely give it a careful reading.—Boone County Recorder.

Under our law as it stood before the Constitution now proposed, cattle of the value of $50, the growing crop, articles manufactured for family use, all the poultry raised, and the provision on hand for family use were exempt from taxation. The new Constitution now proposes to change all this.—Irvine Enterprise.

Some time ago it looked as if the new Constitution would be easily defeated, but at this time there is but little doubt of its success. However, there is nothing save death and taxes, hence, you should go to the polls the first Monday in August and vote for the Constitution. This will stop the everlasting question, which has cost the people time and money for the last sixteen years—Barlow Star.

The proposed Constitution gives the Legislature the right to delegate to some appointing power, most likely the Governor, the power to appoint Mayors for cities and towns the population of which does not exceed 8,000; and the same mode of selecting School Boards can be resorted to in all cities and towns the population of which does not exceed 20,000. The Mayor and Chairman of the Board of Trustees are one and the same thing, and are important officers in every city and town, and should be chosen by the people themselves, and not left to an outsider. For the reason that the School Board has the privilege of selecting those who are to teach our children, and has the power to levy a tax upon us for school purposes, it is highly important that they should be chosen by the people themselves.

Smith, of Lexington, has sold to Bowman Bros., a three-year-old stallion by Wilton, dam by Red Wilkes, for $3,500.

Snator Heart's racing stable was sold to New York racing association, when he won $90,000 last year, for $33,500.

The new Chicago racing association will throw open its gates Wednesday, when a "Derby" at a mile and a quarter will be run. The track as it stands represents an outlay of $500,000.

The Hudson County (N. Y.) Jockey Club had a most successful meeting on Thursday last. During 118 days more than 700 races were run, and about $400,000 were paid out in purses and added money to stakes.
